Re: A-097-528-851

Dear Mr. Sankara:

This letter is in response to your correspondence to the Executive Office for Immigration Review (EOIR), Office of the General Counsel, dated February 12, 2016. In your correspondence, you indicate that you are seeking information on "any other" immigration actions or relief applications. You also state that you are a United States citizen because you wife was granted citizenship through an application process. We provide the following information.

Please note that EOIR, which includes the Immigration Courts and the Board of Immigration Appeals, is an adjudicative body charged with interpreting the immigration laws of the United States and conducting hearings on a wide variety of immigration issues. As such, this office is precluded from providing legal advice.

Our electronic records indicate that an immigration judge ordered you removed on July 20, 2012. An appeal affirmed the immigration judge's order on July 15, 2013.

An immigration attorney may be your best source of information regarding your current situation. Therefore, as a courtesy we have also enclosed a list of free or low cost legal service providers in your area. We hope this information will be of assistance to you.

Sincerely,

Phillip Rimmer
